The Department of State is responsible for formulating and executing U.S. foreign policy and primarily maintains records dealing with U.S. foreign relations. The Department also maintains records of applications from U.S. citizens for U.S. passports and visa requests from non-citizens to enter the U.S., records on consular assistance provided to U.S. citizens abroad, and records of Department employees.

Based on our review of your correspondence, we have determined that we cannot process your request because you have not reasonably described the records you seek in a way that someone familiar with Department records and programs could locate them. As the Department of State consists of hundreds of offices and overseas posts, with many different filing systems, your request should be specific, detailed, and include as much of the following as might be relevant:

X	Please specify or narrow the time frame of your request;
	Please narrow the scope of your request;
	Type of record, subject matter, countries and/or organizations involved;
	Circumstances which lead you to believe the records exist;

	pertaining to the documents requested;
	If persons are involved, are they public figures or deceased individuals.
